The Season of Epiphany

Epiphany is Greek for "manifestation" or "revealing". It is during this season of the Church Year that we hear the various lessons from the Bible that "reveal" Jesus Christ as the Son of God as the Savior of the whole world. From the glory of His baptism at the beginning of His ministry to the glory of His transfiguration at its culmination of the epiphany season, the voice of the Father declares to the world: This is my beloved Son!

When someone has an epiphany, it's not that reality changed. The way they see that reality is what changed, for a deeper truth has been revealed. An epiphany is an "a-ha!" moment causing us to look at things very differently (and better).

Worship Focus: Baptism is the Cure for an Identity Crisis

"Who is Jesus?" For the longest time, people thought the answer to that question was, "Mary and Joseph's son" or "a carpenter from Nazareth." While true enough, those answers do not adequately describe Jesus. But when Jesus was baptized, God the Father spoke, declaring Jesus true identity. Jesus was the dearly loved Son of God, chosen to be the Savior of the world.

"Who are you?" someone asks. Perhaps you would answer "I'm a nobody." But to answer that question—Who are you? —we must look to our baptism. Baptism is the cure for an identity crisis. There, just like he did with Jesus, our Father declares us to be his dearly loved child. Moreover, in baptism God anointed us with power for a life of selfless service. May God grant us this epiphany moment!

OPENING SONG OF PRAISE

YOU BROKE THROUGH

words & music by Stephen Bautista

There's a place I once lived
Surrounded, completely walled in
With a heart made of stone
And a stubbornness that ran right down to the bone

I had walls thick with pride
And anger that echoed inside
I built up a defense
To conceal any conscience from all my offense

Chorus

Chorus:

You broke through with sweet mercy
You broke through and softened me
You freed a captive of a hardened heart
When you broke through

Now I live in a place
Surrounded completely by grace
With a heart, not of stone
But one that beats for you in a new life of hope

Chorus X2

Gathering Rite for Baptism

In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

"I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit.

Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit."

(John 3:5,6)

Surely we were sinful at birth, sinful from the time our mothers conceived us.

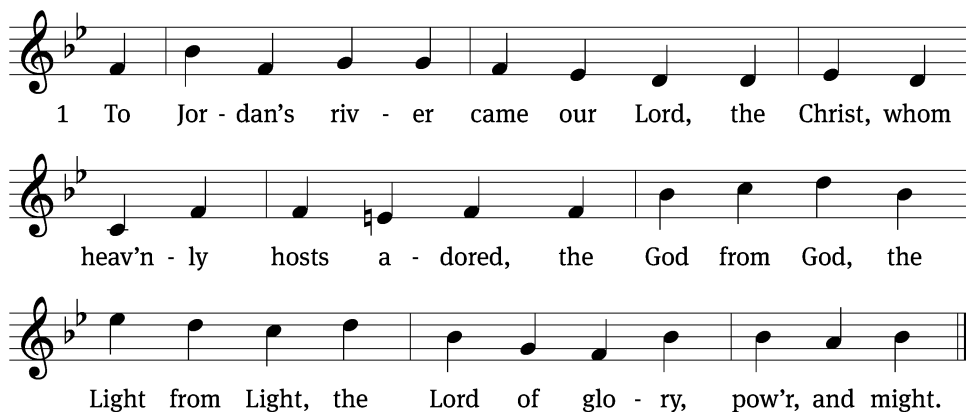

(Psalm 51:5)

But we were washed, we were sanctified, we were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

(1 Corinthians 6:11)

To Jordan's River Came Our Lord

CW 377 st. 1,2,6

1 To Jor - dan's riv - er came our Lord, the Christ, whom heav'n - ly hosts a - dored, the God from God, the Light from Light, the Lord of glo - ry, pow'r, and might.

As baptized children of God, we confess our sins.

Holy God, gracious Father,

I am sinful by nature and have sinned against you in my thoughts, words, and actions.

I have not loved you with my whole heart;

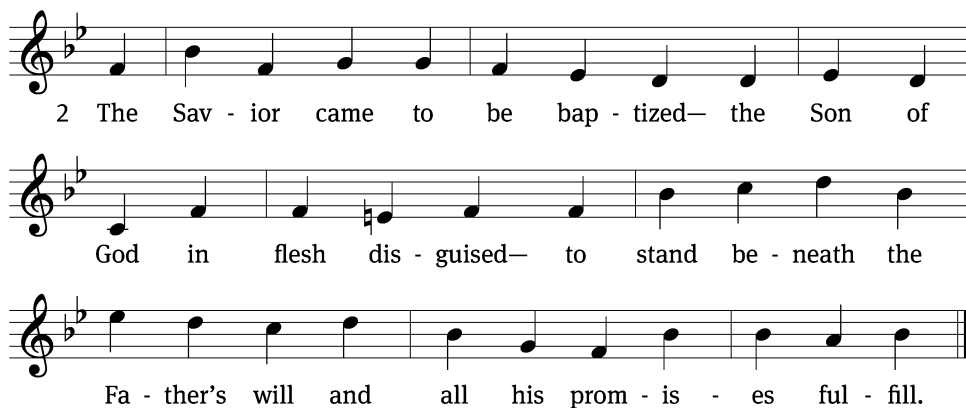

I have not loved others as I should.

I deserve your punishment both now and forever.

But Jesus, my Savior, paid for my sins with his innocent suffering and death.

Trusting in him, I pray: God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

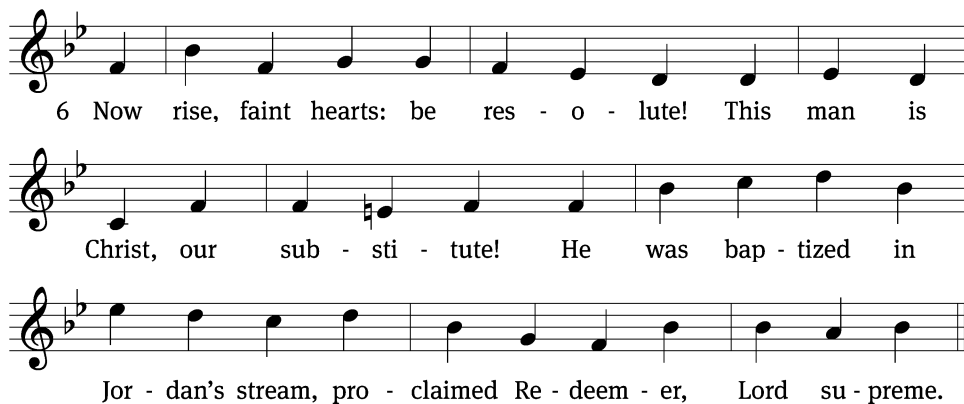

2 The Sav - ior came to be bap - tized— the Son of God in flesh dis - guised— to stand be - neath the Fa - ther's will and all his prom - is - es ful - fill.

Absolution

Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to Himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by His authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Word

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Father in heaven, at the baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan You proclaimed Him Your beloved Son and anointed Him with the Holy Spirit. Keep us who are baptized into Christ faithful in our calling as Your children and make us heirs with Him of everlasting life; through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

First Reading

1 Samuel 16:1-13

David is chosen and anointed for royal purpose

¹ The Lord said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I see a king for myself among his sons." ²Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears about it, he will kill me." The Lord said, "Take a heifer with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the Lord.' ³Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will let you know what you are to do. You are to anoint for me the person that I point out to you." ⁴So Samuel did what the Lord had told him to do and went to Bethlehem. Trembling with fear, the elders of the city came to meet him. They said, "Do you come in peace?" ⁵He said, "Yes, in peace. I have come to sacrifice to the Lord. Consecrate yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." He consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. ⁶When they had come, he looked at Eliab and said, "Certainly this is the Lord's anointed." ⁷But the Lord said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance or at how tall he is, because I have rejected him. For the Lord does not look at things the way man does. For man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart." ⁸Then Jesse called Abinadab and had him pass in front of Samuel. But Samuel said, "The Lord has not chosen this one either." ⁹Then Jesse had Shammah pass by. But Samuel said, "The Lord has not chosen this one either." ¹⁰Jesse had seven of his sons pass before Samuel. Samuel said to Jesse, "The Lord has not chosen any of these." ¹¹Samuel said to Jesse, "Is that all of the young men?" Jesse said, "There still is the youngest, but he is tending the sheep." Samuel said to Jesse, "Send for him, for we cannot sit down to eat until he comes." ¹²He sent for him and brought him in. David had red hair and striking eyes, and was good-looking. The Lord said, "Get up! Anoint him, because this is the one." ¹³So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers. The Spirit of the Lord rushed on David with power from that day forward. After that Samuel set out and returned to Ramah.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

I thought I had it figured out;
every step that I'd take Making my own plans and mapping every move I'd make Despite my good intentions
for the way I'd follow you
It seemed to beg the question:
just who was leading who?
But each time I'd falter, stumble or veer
It would become abundantly clear
I've gotta do it...

My design was more in line
with what had suited me
Looking for the ways
to serve you more conveniently
Purposely avoiding going down a road too hard
Planning every step so
I was never caught off guard
But back when you called me to take up my cross
You said come follow whatever the cost
And to do it...

Chorus

Chorus:

Your way, not mine
Your way, not mine
Your plan, your will
Your grand design
Your way, not mine

You paid the ultimate ransom for me
The least I could do is go where you lead

Chorus 2 (X2)

Your path, your steps
Your perfect time
Your grace, your love
Your heart's desire
Your way, not mine

JUNIOR CHOIR ANTHEM (10:05AM)

WRITE UPON MY HEART

Words and Lyrics Martin/Angerman

Write upon my heart, Lord Jesus.
Inscribe Your name upon my life.
Start in me a sacred work.
Make my life an open book.
Let others know Your truth through me.

Renew me, Lord, with Your Spirit;
Let it be the Word of Truth.
Let me reflect Your love and grace,
Until I see you face to face.
Let me share your love in all I do.

Fill my life with grace, Lord Jesus;
Let Your music echo through my soul.
Make in me a living song;
Let it sound for you alone.
Let others share Your love through me.

Write upon my life, Lord Jesus;
Sculpt me as the potter works the clay,
Making me Your work of art,
A reflection of your heart.
Let others see Your love in me.

Let others know Your truth, Lord Jesus.
Let others hear Your voice, Lord Jesus.
Let others see Your love in me.

Second Reading

Titus 3:4-7

Anointed with a second birth at baptism

⁴But when the kindness and love of God our Savior toward mankind appeared, ⁵he saved us—not by righteous works that we did ourselves, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and the renewal by the Holy Spirit, ⁶whom he poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, ⁷so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs in keeping with the hope of eternal life.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Luke 3:15-17, 21-22

Anointed to fulfill all righteousness

¹⁵The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John might be the Christ. ¹⁶John answered them all, "I baptize you with water. But someone mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹⁷His winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clean out his threshing floor. He will gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." ²¹When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. While he was praying, heaven was opened, ²²and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love. I am well pleased with you." ²³Jesus himself was about thirty years old when he began his ministry.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ!

SONG OF PRAISE

BE STILL

words & music by Stephen Bautista

I know this life can be hard
'Cause I've felt the depth of your scars
And I know every heartache
Each doubt and fear
And I promise, I'll be here
So be still
Be still

Even in darkness my mercies are new
The light of my Grace will always endure
So be still
Be still

When your hope is stretched out too thin
And the eyes of faith have grown dim
When you don't have the strength
And you just can't go on
You can find rest in my arms
So be still
Be still

When you've reached the end of your days
And you're free from this fallen place
I'll be there by your side
When you kneel at the throne
And our Father says well done
So be still

I'm holding you safe in the palm of my hand
And I won't forsake you, you're never alone
My love is forever, it goes on and on
So be still
Be still

God Sees What We Don't See

Stand at conclusion of sermon

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Online Giving

He said lay down your nets and “come follow me’
Without regard for what lies ahead
And we should never look back, just trust and believe
That he’ll lead us to the promise land
And as we take his hand and go
On the path to heaven’s home
We may venture out into the unknown

Chorus:

But there is joy in the journey an amazing life to live
When we’re called by the Savior to come and follow him
Though we hope for the future and the glory that awaits
Let us live in this moment and embrace each step we take
When we follow in His footsteps there is joy in the journey

And there’ll be days when we find that we’re too tired and worn
To carry on and take one more step
But our strength is in Christ and we cling to the hope
That soon we will be at heaven’s gate
And what a glorious day when
We’ll be at our journey’s end
And our own eyes will finally see heaven

Chorus

Bridge:

When we live a life of gratitude for the new life that He gave
When we fill our voice in thankfulness for the price he had to pay
When we join our hearts to worship him and praise the Holy One
When we lift Him up to all the world and tell what he has done

Chorus

Installation of Councilmen (5:00pm/7:30am) Reception of New Members (10:05am)

Prayer of the Church

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in Heaven
Hallowed be Your name,
Your kingdom come,
Your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are Yours now and forever. Amen.

Welcoming Children in Worship

Mark 10:14 (Jesus) said to them. “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.”

Public Worship is one of the basic ways people learn what it means to be Christian. Children learn worship by worshipping with the congregation Sunday after Sunday.

- They learn they belong to Christ and are welcome in His Church.
- They learn to know the Lord’s Prayer and other parts of the liturgy from memory.
- They build a fund of memorable, shared experiences of Christian community against which they may draw when they are older.
- They are enriched by the beauty of music and art as expressions of praise and thanks to God.
- They hear stories from the Bible read and interpreted, and begin to see Christian worship as one place where God may speak to them.
- They witness the celebration of Holy Baptism and the Lord’s Supper as God comes to nourish His people with forgiveness.
- They discover that they are valued by God and by the people of God at Church.

Keeping all this in mind, St. Peter’s looks to encourage and welcome children at our weekend public worship.
